

An Elegant Tea

Tuesday, October 10, 2023

Enjoy an elegant tea at Walnut Creek's "Pretty Tea Parties", with time for shopping at the upscale Broadway Plaza.

After a champagne toast, lunch begins with a mixed green salad and a sprinkle of sliced almonds. The assortment of tea sandwiches includes cucumber with dill cream cheese, egg salad with avocado, turkey with provolone cheese and pesto, smoked salmon with herb cheese spread and roasted ham and cheese with creamy mustard. Tea also includes scones, seasonal fresh fruit with yogurt, house choice of mini baked goods and cheesecake and of course it also includes a variety of assorted teas.

Before returning home spend some time at Broadway Plaza, an open-air shopping center with more than 80 specialty shops, services, and restaurants, including Nordstrom, Macy's, Apple and Lululemon. Broadway Plaza is acknowledged for its world class landscaping and European-styled fountains, and has been voted "Best Shopping Center" in Diablo Magazine's "Best of the East Bay."

England's tradition of afternoon tea began in the 1840s when it was fashionable at the time to eat a morning breakfast while the dinner hour had gradually been pushed back from six o'clock to eight, or even nine o'clock.

One day the Duchess of Bedford, Lady in Waiting to Queen Victoria, ordered her servants to bring her tray with a pot of tea and a light snack of bread and cake - and invented afternoon tea.

Soon, the new trend of afternoon tea moved into the fashionable drawing rooms of London; quickly becoming an agreeable, sociable daily ritual. Before long, afternoon tea was an established tradition that still helps us fill the gap between breakfast and dinner today.
