

Destination: Eleven Roses Ranch

Thursday, April 27, 2021

Enjoy an authentic ranch experience with your host Anne Austin, who invites you to an authentic chuckwagon barbeque and narrated mule-drawn wagon ride through fields of wildflowers. Additionally, you are likely to see deer, wild turkeys and other wildlife along the way.

Anne grew up on the ranch located in Long Valley, Lake County, which was settled by her family in 1883. This unique experience has been featured on the BBC, California Heartland television and Food & Travel Radio.

Upon arrival you will be greeted with refreshments featuring delicious Lake County wine and locally grown foods as Anne provides a history of the ranch. The family mules will give you an unforgettable memory as they take you through fields of Bluebonnets, Meadow Foam, Owl Clover, Queen Anne's Lace and other wildflowers.

Return to the tented lunch site for a picnic luncheon, complete with Dutch Oven cobbler cooked over campfire coals.

Your choices are:

1. Pork Tenderloin
2. BBQ Chicken
3. Vegetarian
