at Historic El Campanil Theatre in Antioch

Pasquale Esposito makes his first appearance at El Campanil Theatre. Noted for the raw power and beauty of his voice, Naples-born tenor Pasquale Esposito is famed for his pop-opera style and stirring tributes to legendary opera singer Enrico Caruso and the Italian Piazzas on PBS and as part of a blockbuster live national tour. This concert is set to feature an entertaining mix of original compositions, Broadway favorites, Italian, American and Spanish songbook standards, and of course, some opera highlights.

With A Very Special Opening Act: Anthony "Nino" Lane Band- Anthony follows his heart and sings the music he enjoyed growing up - Classic Italian. Anthony "Nino" Lane Cotroneo and his amazing band perform regularly at Italian events all across the Country.

PLEASE NOTE: Proof of vaccination will be required to attend any event at El Campanil Theatre. Negative COVID tests are not accepted. All patrons, regardless of age and vaccination status, are required to wear masks inside the theatre at all times (except when consuming food or beverage in the lobby.) Acceptable masks are surgical, cloth, or (K)N95. Gaiters, bandanas, face shields or masks with an exhalation valve will not be acceptable.
