From the creator of The Marvelous Wonderettes comes a brand-new jukebox comedy bursting with retro TV joy. In Don't Touch That Dial!, Brian drifts off to sleep and wakes up inside a zany television game show. Alongside three quirky contestants, he's thrown into a whirlwind of TV memories — until the tables turn and the audience becomes part of the show! Packed with classic television theme songs, sight gags, and nostalgia, this fast-paced musical comedy is pure channel-surfing fun.

When the lights hit the piano and the first pounding chords ring out, Great Balls of Fire doesn't ease into the story — it explodes. Inspired by the electrifying life of Jerry Lee Lewis, the Broadway-style production captures the raw, rebellious birth of rock 'n' roll in the 1950s. It reminds audiences that early rock wasn't just music — it was a cultural earthquake, and Jerry Lee Lewis was right at its epicenter.

Buffet lunch at The Peppery before the 2:00 p.m. performance.
