The Doo Wop Project, the dynamic, rave-reviewed celebration of a beloved music genre, has a brand new show: Echoes of the Street. Starring the five engaging, charismatic and dashing Broadway stars from smash hits like Jersey Boys, A Bronx Tale, Beautiful and Motown: The Musical with their all-star band, this exciting performance features fresh renditions of classic Doo Wop hits (remember "16 candles," and "In the Still of the Night"?) as well as "doowopified" versions of contemporary hits like Adele's "Rolling in the Deep," and Garth Brooks' "Friends in Low Places."

If you've seen The Doo Wop Project before, you are in for a brand new treat. If you haven't seen them yet, you'll be treated to a fantastic evening of the greatest music in American pop and rock history.

Late lunch at Skewers before the 5:00 p.m. performance.
