

Pageant of the Masters

4 Days, Monday-Thursday, July 13-16, 2026

Experience the Pageant of the Masters, a fabulous stage production where life imitates art as classic paintings and sculptures are re-created with living models and presented in an amphitheater under the stars, with a full orchestra and live narration. Explore the Getty Center, a museum with something for everyone, art from the Middle Ages to today, set amid modern architecture, unique gardens, and spectacular city views. Visit the Getty Villa Museum where Greek and Roman antiquities are housed in a recreated Roman Country home. Tour the Nethercutt Museum with over 250 perfectly restored automobiles, mechanical music and luxury artifacts.

Day 1 Mon., July 13th Travel to Costa Mesa/Newport Area (L)

Travel to Southern California, stopping for lunch en route. Arrive in the early evening for a three night stay at the Ayers Hotel in the Costa Mesa/Newport area.

Day 2 Tues., July 14th The Getty Center Los Angeles (B)

Visit the incredible Getty Museum. Explore galleries featuring European paintings, decorative arts, and photography. Explore the living work of art "The Central Garden", designed by artist Robert Irwin, with circular paths containing over 500 varieties of plants. This evening, choose to relax at the hotel or take a short drive to Newport Harbor for an independent dinner near the waterfront.
