

MAGNIFICENT MICHIGAN WITH MACKINAC ISLAND

8 days, Thurs.-Thurs., August 8-15, 2024

Stay two nights on Mackinac Island, leisurely exploring the resort island, riding a horse carriage, and lunch at the Grand Hotel. Tour the Ford Factory, and The Henry Ford Museum and Village. Visit the quaint town of Frankenmuth and cruise on the Bavarian Belle Riverboat. Tour Detroit and visit the Motown Museum. Farewell dinner at the Edsel & Eleanor Ford Estate.

Day 1 Thurs., Aug. 8 Fly To Detroit, Michigan (D)

Fly to Detroit, and drive to Allen Park for a 2-night stay at the Best Western Greenfield Inn.

Day 2 Fri., Aug. 9 Ford Factory Tour, The Henry Ford Museum & Village (B,D)

Enjoy the Ford Factory Tour, which tells the story of the Ford Motor Company and you will walk through the assembly plant and see the most famous Ford vehicles in the Legacy Gallery. The rest of the afternoon is at the Henry Ford Greenfield Village and Museum where you can ride in a Model T, a carousel and access the Steam Engine Train.

Day 3 Sat., Aug. 10 Frankenmuth, Pretzel Making, Riverboat & Shopping (B,D)

Tour the town of Frankenmuth, known for its Bavarian style architecture and where Christmas is always just around the corner. Enjoy a pretzel making class before your riverboat ride on the Bavarian Belle. Visit Bronner's Christmas Wonderland, with time for shopping in the Worlds Largest Christmas Store.

Day 4 Sun., Aug. 11 Travel to Mackinac Island (B, D)

Drive through scenic country en route to Mackinac City. Take the ferry to Mackinac Island for a two-night stay in Mackinac's charming downtown which is easily explorable on foot (no cars are allowed on the island). From its bluff cottages to its quaint horse-drawn carriages this peaceful resort island offers a glimpse into life during a genteel era.
